The college has a long-standing tradition of producing nursing leaders for practice, education and research. As a leader in nursing education, research and practice innovations, the UI College of Nursing has received national recognition by U.S. News & World Report, ranking seven of its graduate programs among the best in the nation (in comparison to all public and private schools).

For more than a century, College of Nursing graduates have achieved distinguished careers as scholars, educators, practitioners, and nurse executives. At Iowa, we are committed to preparing future nurse leaders with the courage, creativity, and passion to use their skills and knowledge to improve the health of individuals and communities.

As a community of nurse scholars, we believe that an expert faculty with varied areas of expertise is required to carry out the educational mission of the College. Faculty are committed to designing and implementing curricula in which students develop critical thinking, decision-making skills, clinical judgment, cultural sensitivity, and professional nursing values in an increasingly complex health care system.

Requirements include:
• Earned doctorate in nursing (Research or Practice Doctorate)
• National certification as an Adult/Gero-ACNP-BC
• Expertise and experience in clinical specialty
• Licensed Registered Nurse and eligible for licensure in the State of Iowa
• Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
