The College of Nursing does not adhere to the published University final exam schedule set forth by the Office of the Registrar. In situations where exam conflicts occur with Nursing administered (admin home) courses, during either the fall or spring semester, the Nursing administered courses will not take precedence over any other course(s). This applies to both published and alternate examination times. The College of Nursing will issue alternate exams for their administered courses at a time when the affected student does not have any other scheduled examinations. Students with conflicts involving Nursing administered courses should file a change of exam schedule request at the Registrar Service Center, 17 CALH. Please see the academic deadlines calendar ( <http://www.registrar.uiowa.edu/Calendars/AcademicDeadlines/tabid/67/Default.aspx> ) for the deadlines to file a change of exam schedule request.

In situations where exam conflicts occur with Nursing cross-referenced courses that are administered outside of the College of Nursing, the standard final exam conflict precedence rules and procedures will apply. Once again the student should file a change of exam schedule request at the Registrar Service Center. See "Final Exam Policies" ( <http://www.registrar.uiowa.edu/Student/ExamInformation/tabid/151/Default.aspx> ) for further information.
